10th April 1970

My dear Chimanbhai,

I have just seen your letter of 7th April. I shall be glad to send you a few lines about Bhaikaka for the special number of Vallabh Vidyanagar that you are bringing out in his memory. I am afraid, however, it will not be possible for me to let you have it by the 15th instant as I shall be involved in Party meetings, etc. from tomorrow morning and also my mother is critically ill lying in hospital here and I have to spend a good deal of time visiting her.

I shall try and let you have a few words about Bhaikaka in the course of a couple of weeks.

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. NASARI)

Date 7th April, 1970.

Dear Shri Masani,

As you know, the founder of the Educational Township and the University in Vallabh Vidyanagar, as also the founder leader of Gujarat Swatantra Party Shri Bhailalbhai D. Patel, popularly known in Gujarat as "BHAIKAKA" passed away on 31st March, 1970. His passing away has been a great loss to the country and Gujarat in particular. Vallabh Vidyanagar mourns the loss of its founder.

Charutar Vidyamandal, Vallabh Vidyanagar, publishes a fortnightly journal named "Vallabh Vidyanagar". We propose to take out a special number in the memory of Shri Bhaikaka which will cover some articles about Bhaikaka and his work as also tributes from eminent persons who had an occasion to know Bhaikaka intimately.

We would be greatly obliged if we could receive a contribution from you to the special number of "Vallabh Vidyanagar", either in the form of a message or a short article. We trust that in the midst of your busy schedule, you will very kindly find time to pen a few words for our special number and let us have your contribution by 15th April, '70.

Thanking you and with kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Chimanbhai D. Desai
