Dear Sir:

We have learnt that you are paying a visit to this city on the 1st of February, 1970. In this context, we refer to your letter of 5th January 1970 wherein you were kind enough to write that whenever you plan your visit here, you will bear our invitation in mind to address our members. We take this opportunity to reiterate our previous request, and shall be delighted if you can spare some time and speak to our members and their guests on any subject of your choice. Needless to say, our members are eagerly looking forward to listen to you, and we are hopeful that you will disappoint us. On receipt of your confirmation, we shall go ahead with finalising a Guest Speaker function and let you have our finalised programme.

Thanking you in the meanwhile,

Yours faithfully,

BHALABHAI C. PATEL
