My dear Maharaja Sahab,

Thank you for your letter of 29th December and your felicitations. I think you will agree with me that what I really need is sympathy and good wishes instead !

I shall certainly bear in mind what you say and do my very best. If I am in Bombay when you come this way next, it will be a pleasure to see you.

Wishing you a Happy New Year,

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. Masani)
