Dear Shri Masany,

I hope, by now, you would have heard about the existence of our monthly magazine, Press and Public Relations, an intensely non-political and non-aligned periodical. For this reason, the magazine seeks to ventilate every balance opinion which has the good of the people as its core.

Special articles by eminent persons are, therefore, invited to present a cross-section of opinion in an effort to find the essential unity of the nation.

The Editorial Board would be most grateful if you could kindly contribute an article on any aspect of the political, economic or social life of the country for publication in the issue following the month of the receipt of your article. A Questionnaire is also enclosed to seek your replies - again with the object of publishing it.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

B. Bhatnagar

(Bankey Behari Bhatnagar)

Chief Editor.

Shri M.R. Masany,
Swatantra President.

QUESTIONNAIRE

Which way the country is going?

What picture the industrial growth is apt to develop under the new phase of the Ruling Congress?

What is your economic policy to suit the requirement of the different regions of the country?

Is it not that too many political parties with different slogans confuse the people? Would you think of uniting chosen parties under one banner for politico-economic ends?

What is your attitude towards the Princes' Privy Purse?

Foreign Policy:

India's foreign policy is half-witted, specially in regard to Arab-Isreal.

In the international parlance, it is said, Indian's are unpredictable and they only talk big-brotherly. What stock India has in the world community of nations and what in your view should be the image?
