Dear Mr. Masani,

Congratulations. You are one among the very few in this country who is 50 years ahead of the times. You are also one among the very few who has not sacrificed his political principles for personal honour or gain. Had you patched up with Nehru, you could have reached places you did not. I only hope and pray that your shining example of real sacrifice will be emulated by the younger generation.

Kind regards, Sir,
