My dear Meckoni,

Thank you for your note of the 15th. You should not allow political developments to depress you quite so much. These things happen and we have to take them in our stride. For some of us it is time for an agonising reappraisal of whatever we stand for. I am arranging for the necessary meetings to be called for this purpose.

Thank you for your kind words and loyalty.

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. MASANI)

Mr. P. B. Meckoni,
Bombay.
