My dear Fali and Aloo,

I am just about to settle down to normal life here but I have been wanting ever since my return to write and tell you how much I appreciate your generous hospitality and kindness. It was a great comfort to have something like a home to go to in Rajkot throughout the past few weeks. I am sorry you have had to put yourself out in so many ways because of my irregular movements and for being worried with telephone calls at odd hours.

Do please let me know when you are next going to be in Bombay as it would be a pleasure to meet you both for a meal together at Breach Candy House.

Once again with my deep gratitude for all your kindness and care particularly Aloo's looking after my nutrition sometimes a little too well!

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. Masani)
