My dear and respected Sir,

Notwithstanding

all sorts of misgivings, I like to suggest that you should invite Messrs. Kripalani, Lohia Jayaprakash Narayan, Ranga and Masani to meet you and talk things over with reference to ^{some} united opposition on a minimum agreed programme. I dare say you are already giving some thought to it.

Your great prestige and intellect may cause some results to flow and you may score where others have so far failed. However insignificant the resultant good may be, even if nothing whatsoever may come out of the whole thing, the move is to be made by you for it is a good move. So I think; of course, I may be wrong.

Various groups individuals, groups and parties can stick to their respective lights without prejudice to some united action regarding Foreign Policy, Defence, Taxation and Corruption. I shall welcome an agreement even with reference to removal of the present Government without even mentioning any specific point.

With warmest respects to you, sir,

Yours affectionately,

R.V.M.G. Ramaran
of Pithapuram

Sri C. Rajagopalachari.
